ABRAHAM & MARY TODD LINCOLN: A HOUSE DIVIDED

From a strange courtship of two people of different classes, temperaments, and backgrounds (North and South), Abraham and Mary Todd Lincoln endured a life together of near poverty, tragic deaths of children, divided families, confining fame and the bloodiest war in American history. Despite their differences, they held hands in the presidential box at Ford's Theatre, looking forward to a peaceful, well-deserved retirement. As you know, that is not how the story ends. Weaving anecdotes into the lecture, you will enjoy hearing our great president and his wife come to life. Glenn LeBoeuf, lecturer, and historian.

Swim Programs for Adults at The Berkeley Swim School – Beginning January 3rd

“Water is an incredible resource for fitness because it simultaneously provides buoyancy and resistance. Water exercise works for everyone, every body and every ability level.”

C Level Beginners: Water basics :60 minutes

We start with simple, safe exercises to learn balance. From there we progress with rotary breathing, a propulsive kick and then arm movements in coordination with good balance and a strong kick.

B Level Advance Beginners More skills :60 minutes

Now that you can get across the pool, we'll begin learning other ways of moving through the water. You'll begin to use your skills for recreation and fitness all through improved strokes and confidence.

A /Fitness/Fitness Levels: Endurance for more experienced swimmers :90 minutes

The A/Fitness levels enjoy a mixed session of both instruction and practice. These students have developed enough swimming endurance to swim for an extended period of time with efficient body positions and strokes and can use this activity for exercise, preparation for triathlons, and Masters swimming.

DANISH VISTAS: JUTLAND AND FUNEN

Lets explore Jutland, part of the small modern kingdom of Denmark; and Funen, one of Denmark's islands. Our stops in Jutland will be Silkeborg, site of the Stone Age Tollund Man, and Aarhus, the capitol. On Funen, we will visit the city of Odense, the birthplace and home of Hans Christian Andersen. Nearby is the impressive 16th century Egeshov Manor House and its lush gardens, a lovely spot to conclude our visit to this charming country. However, before we begin this journey, we will be making an excursion to Torshavn, the capitol of the Faroe Islands. This group of small volcanic islands is under the Danish crown. Audrey L. PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH COUNTRY

Lancaster County, PA is home to America's oldest Amish settlement, where thousands still live a plain lifestyle: no electricity, telephones, children go to school only through 8th grade, and the scriptures are interpreted literally. Learn all about their customs as we travel country roads and see the farms, water wheels, one-room schoolhouses, horse-drawn plows and traditional buggies. After lunch (included), guides in period dress will take us to Wheatland, home of the 15th U.S. President, James Buchanan, America's only bachelor president. The 1828 Federal-style mansion was his personal retreat, and served as Democratic Headquarters (1859). Later he retired there. (Great Outings)
