JUMP AHEAD OF YOUR COMPETITION WITH ICON.

You're not like everyone else, so why do you advertise the same way everyone else does?

DOING THE SAME THING OVER AND OVER EXPECTING A DIFFERENT RESULT IS...THE DEFINITION OF HOPE, NOT SUCCESS.

Social media looks like a cheap and easy way to saturate the Internet with your product, doesn't it. So why doesn't it work?

You send out a groovy email to your contact list...and wait. The people who respond are already either your regular customers, or people who respond to anything and everything all the time. That doesn't add up to an appreciable bump in sales, does it? So why didn't it work?

This is what works.

Create a desire for your product, show or event, and once there's legitimate interest people will reward your website with sincere interest. That adds up to sales. Thousands of people don't know or care about your business and that's a shame. It's not their fault. Show them a picture and they will come. Pictures create desire, interest, impulse, and then they go to your website—and then you have a new customer. Like magic, no?

Why it works.

ICON is circulated from Philadelphia through Central Bucks and all of Lehigh Valley. Our readership—affluent, intelligent men and women—is over 65,000 each month. That's a lot of eyes on your ad.

Americans of all ages read print magazines—especially younger adults
